

External Relations Committee – Network Relationships

HEN DPG's External Relations Committee develops relationships and recruits like-minded organizations and professional colleagues to support HEN activities. Networks, Friends, and Sponsors of HEN share similar missions to that of HEN.

The purpose of a HEN Network Relationship is usually involves completing a discrete project or scope of work.

Suggested expectations of each network relationship:

HEN may provide the following to approved network organizations:

- a member liaison for primary contact
- a link on <http://www.hendpg.org/> to the network's Website
- written materials about the HEN DPG that the network may want to publish
- forward pertinent electronic information about the network to the HEN list serv
- a complimentary subscription of the HEN printed newsletter to each network
- verbal recognition and/or display printed materials at annual HEN DPG business meetings and/or receptions
- network promotion annually in the HEN newsletter
- other contributions as appropriate

Networks may provide the following to HEN:

- a member liaison for primary contact
- a link on the network's Website to <http://www.hendpg.org/>
- written materials about the network that could be published in the HEN DPG newsletter
- forward pertinent electronic information about HEN DPG to the network's e-mail list
- a complimentary subscription to the organization's newsletter
- verbal recognition and/or display printed materials at annual business meetings and/or receptions per the network's policies
- promotion of the HEN DPG annually in the network's newsletter
- other contributions as appropriate